THE OUTSIDER

By Paul Slade Smith

Directed by Kim Martin

Performances: 9/26, 9/27, 9/28 - 10/3, 10/4, 10/5/2025

Synopsis: Ned Newley doesn't even want to be governor. He's terrified of public speaking; his poll numbers are impressively bad. To his ever-supportive Chief of Staff, Ned seems destined to fail. But political consultant Arthur Vance sees things differently: Ned might be the worst candidate to ever run for office. Unless the public is looking for... the worst candidate to ever run for office. A timely and hilarious comedy that skewers politics and celebrates democracy.

Who's Who of Production

Jan Herring-Seeley (Director)

See director's note

Patti Meiners (Assistant Director, Costumes) last directed Murder on the Orient Express and appeared most recently on stage as Clairee in Steel Magnolias. In addition to acting and directing, she has played keyboard for BLT and other area theaters' productions. She is a past president of BLT, a retired Educational Diagnostician, and the organist at La Porte Community Church.

Who's Who in the Cast

Danielle Meza (Mrs. Heath, Lynzie Bain, Ms. Labradour, Mrs. Menteith, Mrs. Malcolm, Mom #1) grew up playing make-believe and hiding within the pages of books. She has now found a wonderful group of talented people who will indulge her in her delusions of grandeur. She has been honored to appear onstage as Shelby (Steel Magnolias), Lupita (Luchadora), Elvira (Blythe Spirit), and Rosie (A Christmas Carol) among others.

She enjoys caring for her small jungle of plants, perfecting her procrastinating skills, and stressing out her best friend by purposely never giving a straight answer to any question she's ever been asked.

Emily Scheppe (Genevra Bradley) has performed in numerous theatrical productions throughout the Baytown area. Some of her favorite roles include Louise Hansen in Galveston Wind, Susan Bennett in An American Church (Grace Theater), and Jacqueline de Severac in Murder on the Nile. Emily extends heartfelt thanks to her husband, Ryan, for his unwavering encouragement and support, and to her daughter, Adelaide, who fills her life with joy.

She is also thrilled to be welcoming a new edition to the family in January. Emily is deeply grateful to her family and friends – their love and support make it all possible.

Ryan Laubach (Joshua Bradley, Production Manager, Set Construction) has been a member of BLT for over 20 years. He has recently thrown his hat into directing with Proof and The Bold and Bob. Apart from directing, he has been part of many productions over the years. His favorite roles are Simon Mostyn in Murder on The Nile, Young Scrooge and Topper in A Christmas Carol, and Marc in Art.

Ryan Scheppe (Ross Bain, Mr. Scott, Airline Steward, Coach Angus, Bix, the Blast-a-Thon Beaver, Sound Design, Set Construction) fell in love with theater at the age of 17 when he performed in his 1st production Fiddler on the Roof at LSU. He has been in many other productions including his favorites Hello, Dolly, The Nerd, Galveston Wind, and JJ's Place. Most recently he co-directed The Play That Goes Wrong. Ryan would like to thank his wife Emily for her constant support and willingness to help him achieve his dreams as well as being an amazing mother to their beautiful daughter Adelaide.

The two of you will always inspire him to be his best self. He also wants to thank the audience for supporting our community theater. Enjoy the show!

Ash King (Cate, Denise, Miss Caithness, Mom #2, Ms. Lennox) has previously participated in ten BLT productions and appeared in seven of them. Outside of theater, she enjoys painting, writing, and soapmaking. She wishes to thank her family and friends for their love and support.

Who's Who in the Company

Tammy Calaway (Stage Manager) is honored to be working with such a talented cast! She has worked on and off stage with the BLT for over 50 years and is currently a BLT board member. She was last seen in The Bold and Bob. She is a retired teacher/math specialist from Galena Park ISD and is currently a math tutor for GCCISD and is the proud Mom of two wonderful children and “Nana” to six, plus two bonus, beautiful grandchildren.

Daulton Cantrell (Lighting) is an engineer at a local chemical plant and is involved with media and small groups at his church home here in Baytown. He has also recently joined BLT’s Board of Directors and serves as the Lighting and Sound Chairperson. Aside from theater, his favorite hobbies include disc golf, Dungeons and Dragons, and cocktail mixology. Some of his former roles in BLT productions include Michael in I Do! I Do!, Frederick Brenner in Galveston

Wind, Jonathan in The Play That Goes Wrong, and Hector McQueen in Murder on the Orient Express. Daulton would like to thank his wife Sky and his BLT family for their encouragement and support.

Sawyer Allman (Sound Technician) is a full-time student at The University of Houston Clear Lake. He is an active member of The Baytown Little Theater, and his most notable roles include: William Smith in Murder on the Nile, Anton in Galveston Wind, Colonel Mustard in Clue: the Musical, and Ricky in Ride the Cyclone. Sawyer would like to thank his friends and family for their endless love and support, especially his mom.

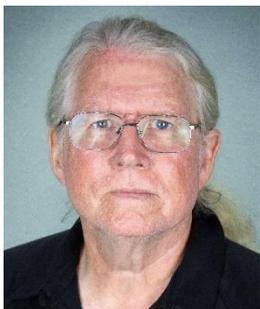

Morgan Chambellan (Beaver Costume) After a long absence, Morgan returned home to BLT and performed in the 2022 production of A Christmas Carol. A year ago, she played Louise Bourget in Murder on the Nile. This past summer she was Mrs. Britt in The Music Man and most recently, Mrs. Cratchit and the Charwoman in 2024's version of A Christmas Carol. Morgan loves being backstage as well working on the crews of Murder on the Orient Express, Into the Woods, and The Bold and the Beautiful. Radium Girls was her first opportunity acting as costumer.

Cyndi Williams (Hair & Makeup) has been a part of Baytown Little Theater since 2019, starting as the hair and makeup artist for Noises Off. She has led hair and makeup for notable productions, including Galveston Wind, Blithe Spirit, and many more. In 2021, Cyndi became the BLT Hair and Makeup Chairperson. Her leadership expanded in 2023 when she assumed the role of Marketing & Publicity Chairperson and joined the Board of Directors. In addition to her theater involvement, Cyndi is a faculty member at San Jacinto College, where she teaches Esthetics and Entrepreneurship courses. She is profoundly grateful for the continuous support from her husband, Vince, and her family, who consistently inspire her creative endeavor.

Dani Meyer (Property Technician) is thrilled to be back in the theater world after a very long intermission. She's had a blast working with this amazing cast and crew and is so grateful for their talent, trust, and unwavering support.

Terry Seeley (Set Construction) has been building sets at BLT for 38 years, including Cinderella's carriage, Tevye's cart, and the racks and shelving in Wardrobe allowing us to squeeze in more costumes. He has been on stage as well, when drafted. Although his wife Jan originally dragged him to the theater, ever since working at BLT with their son, Steele, and many friends, has not only been a pleasure, but also a great excuse for putting things off at home..

Logan Jaques (Set Construction) is excited to be involved with this production of Bright Ideas. He is happy to make his fourth production since moving to Texas. His previous experience comes from being a crew member for shows like Little Women in Chattanooga, TN. Logan was introduced to BLT by his sister and brother-in-law, Sky and Dalton Cantrell. He credits their passion for theatre and BLT as motivation to get involved.

Darlene Vyoral (Set Construction) is excited to be working on this wonderful play with her friends. She started as a volunteer doing anything asked of her, worked as House Manager, served on the Board of Directors, chaired the Volunteer Committee, worked Box Office, serves currently on the Play Reading Committee and was Dresser for Lead Actress on Galveston Wind. While working “front of house” is definitely her preferred position, she is proud to be working with this great cast and crew.

Sky Cantrell (Backstage Crew) is excited to be a part of this production with this wonderful group. Last seen on stage as Grace in Radium Girls, she also enjoys working behind the scenes. Some of her other favorite BLT roles have been in I Do! I Do! and Galveston Wind, with each BLT show holding a special place in her heart. Whether onstage or off, she loves being a part of the storytelling magic and the BLT family — which includes both her husband, Daulton, and brother, Logan!

Susan Monroe (Backstage Crew) was born in Nova Scotia, Canada but has immigrated to the U.S. She is a retired nurse with who developed a passion for theater and the arts after acting in a school production of The Hunchback of Notre Dame. Susan has assisted as an usher for various performances at BLT. She is delighted to return to her passion and will continue to volunteer at BLT.

Bright Ideas

Director's Note

In my 38 years at BLT, I have been on-stage and off, in every job I could find to do. It has always been my passion to share my love of theater and BLT, and the opportunity it gives the community to participate in live theater. Currently co-chair of Wardrobe with Patti Meiners (my lovely AD in this production of Bright Ideas) there is almost no part I have ever played - props, costumes, acting, sets, lights or even serving on the Board of Directors, that I have not reaped a reward at least as great as my investment.

25 years ago, I directed my last full-length production, Cinderella. When I first read Bright Ideas three years ago, it spoke to me. It said, "I am quirky, I am fun, I am your kind of show, and I will make people laugh." A couple years later, I decided the time was right, and for the last year, it has been a joy planning and gathering the talent you see before you today.

This show has been a truly collaborative effort. My cast and crew have worked hard. We have laughed together, analyzed, overthought together, and we have been there for each other when things got rough. I want to thank each and every person whose name is listed in this program. Even though some of you did not want recognition, you all earned your spot. I truly could not have done it without you, and it would not have been the joyful and fabulous experience that it has been. I love you all.

A special thanks to you, our audience. Without your choice to support live theater by your attendance, we don't get paid. Well, actually, we don't get paid...except by your laughter and your applause.

Hope you enjoy our little show and leave with a smile on your face and a piece of cake!
